bis withdrawal:

My withdrawal from the paper, at this time, le for the plain reason, that the income of the establishment is not sufficient to justify my longer stay in it. It would have been a gratification to my personal testings to have remained on in the position I have so long occupied before this community, but justice to myself and those dependent upon my labors, dictates otherwise. DEATH OF JOHN O' SPENCER .- At a late b we have received a telegraphic despetch from Albany, announcing the denth of the Hon. John C. Spencer. This melancholy event him been expected for some days. The announcement will be received with regret throughout the state.

"The deceased was paged irrougnost the sate." The deceased was pughly externed for his personal character, as well as respected and admired for bis eminent abililities. As a lawyer, he had few equals, and probably no superior at the bar.

During his long career, the deceased filled several officer with next to the high result of the probably make the sate. During his long careen the deceased filled average offices with credit to himself, and with unstall near the public. It 1827, he was appointed by Governor De Witt Clinton, one of the three members of the board to revise the statutes of this state, and he took an important part is the performance of that laborious and caponeithe tank, His associates were the Hon John Duer and the Hon. Burjamin F. Butler.

John Duer and the Hoo. Benjamin F. Buller.
Under the Administration of President Tyler,
Mr. Specer became Secretary of War, which office he held until 1943; when he was appointed Secretary of the Treasury. In May, 1844, Mr.
Spencer resigned this effice.
The deceased used to represent St. Peter's church, Albany, as a lay dolegate in the Protestan Episcopal convention of this discoses, and had also been a distinguished delegate in the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The nnnouncement has reched us at so late ar hour, that we have only lime to write this brief notice of Mr. Spence, a life. Meetings of the bar will doubtless be held at Albary and other places in the state, and more suple tribute will be paid to his memory.—[N. Y. Commercial.

Emioration.—The tide of emigration for the season has fully commenced. New comers are smang us every day anquicing for locations, and business situations. Laborers and Mechanics seeking employment, have so occasion to wait loog, for with us, the demand far exceeds the supply. New buildings are springing up on every side of us daily. And if things continue for the season as they have commenced we shall have doubled our population, and extent of our village by the 1st of January next.

Property is changing hunds every day. Mr. Lwis O ok sold his residence has week for $1300. Dr. Winter sold village lots to settlers to the amount of about $2000. H. R. Connit, Eq. also sold several acre lots, adjoining the town plot to Mechanics at $150 per lot. Several other sales of real extent has been made. All things considered we are flourishing fluely.

Secretary Perry vs. Minister Soule.

Washington, May 22.
The National Intelligencer of this morning publishes a long letter from Mr. Perry, Secretary of Legation at Medrid, to the President of the United States, in vindication of himself against the charges brought against him by Mr. Soule, or whom he anaka with much averily. He have not been the property of the production of the producti he President of himself sgainst by Mr. Soule of me charges orought against min by Mr. Sodie of whom he speaks with much severity. He charged him with much complicity with the Fronch Revolutionless, says his (Sonle's) position at Madrid led him to desire war, that by transmitting urronsous information he caused the Ostend Conference to be held, and committed our government before Europe. Mr. P. concludes by stating that if he has resisted Mr. Soule, foiled his cut mint and one his work, he has done as his cuining, and undone his work, he has done so honorably and fairly, abusing no confidence, and

My withdrawal from the paper, at this time My withdrawal from the paper, at this time, la for the plain reason, that the income "of the establishment is not sufficient to justify my longer atay in it. It would have been a gratification to my personal feelings to have remained on in the position I have so long occupied before this community, but justice to myself and those dependent upon my labors, dictates otherwise. I have now steadily been employed in the printing business of this place, for the last seven years; during that time the net income of the office has not exceeded in the aggregate, an amount equal not exceeded in the aggregate, an amount equal to over one half the usual componention paid to the laborer upon the atreet or in the field.

To disembark the French army of reserve with the Sardinian contingent and a British eityriou, at Eupatoria, and to advance on Baksch. Serai, is feasible. A march along the coast is the direction of the Alma and to the Katchs would be unadvisable, for these naturally strong positions have doubtless been strongly fortified by the enemy. It may be maintained that operations conducted with chorgy against Perekop, and the northern peritons of the Crimean peninsula twould result to the best advantage of the allies. The strival of reinforcements on a large scale to the craws would thus be advantage of the allies.
